

CONEY SUBWAY BRINGS 5-CENT FARE NEARER

Plans for Brooklyn Under-ground Road Are Adopted.

HERE IS THE STORY OF WON SUBWAY FIGHT.

Nov. 19, 1905—Bensonhurst, Bath Beach, Borough Park and Coney Island Subway Association organized and agitation began in the Evening World.

Dec. 14, 1905—Hearing before Rapid Transit Commission, 1,900 taxpayers crossing the bridge to urge the extension.

March 26, 1906—Rapid Transit Commission adopted the route.

May 26, 1906—Board of Estimate and Apportionment returns plans to Rapid Transit Commission, with suggestion that provisions be made for a loop terminal at Coney Island.

June 7, 1906—Rapid Transit Commission again approves of plans which include the island loop, and appropriates $26,560 for test borings along the route.

June 15, 1906—Board of Estimate and Apportionment approves of the amended plans and assents to the construction of the proposed railroad, the contract for the work to be let in September.

One step nearer "a five cent fare from the city to the sea" was taken today by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment in approving the plans and assenting to the construction of a four-track subway continuation to Coney Island, with a loop terminal at the "People's Playground." This extension will be seven miles long, tapping the proposed Fourth Avenue subway at Thirty-eighth street, Brooklyn, and running direct to Coney Island through the Boroughs of Bensonhurst and Bath Beach.

This victory is due to the untiring efforts of President F. A. Hudson, of the Bensonhurst, Bath Beach, Borough Park and Coney Island Subway Association, and the constant agitation of the project in the Evening World.

Inasmuch as the proposed continuation will in all probability be built by the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, of Manhattan and the Bronx, with through trains running to Coney Island from Manhattan at a five-cent fare, today's action by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment is a telling blow to the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company and its allied lines now engaged in extending a couple miles to Coney Island.

The subway, which is now being adopted, provides that the tracks shall be placed in tunnels or subways, except the eastern end and southern end, from the point where the railroad will emerge to the surface in the city.

This is the first time that the subway has been built in the city, and it is the first time that the subway has been built in the city, and it is the first time that the subway has been built in the city.

Mr. Hudson, a few weeks ago, was tendered the thanks of the people of the city for his efforts in securing the subway for the city.

SHERMAN MAKES A RECORD ROUND

Utica Crack Finished in 70 in the Knollwood Tournament.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 15.—Some most interesting matches were played today during the second round for the Presidents and Vice-Presidents' Cups in the invitation tournament of the Knollwood Country Club. It was a battle for supremacy among the most expert competitors left in the respective divisions. The best playing of the morning was done by C. M. Sherman, the Utica crack, who defeated the course in the best score of the tournament and beat his man, handily. Graham, who defeated Corp in the first, and won of the course in 73.

Corp had a good match with Geyer, and won out by a small margin. The summary:

Presidents' Cup, second round—Howard J. Gee, Princeton, beat H. F. Geyer, Utica, 2 up and 1 to play.

Vice-Presidents' Cup, second round—W. M. C. Sawyer, Middletown, beat H. C. Richmond, Princeton, 2 up and 1 to play.

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, June 15.—Ideal baseball weather greeted the Brooklyn and Pittsburgh teams when they gathered on the diamond this afternoon for the second game of their series. The Smoky City team were a cheerful looking aggregation when they began warming up practice.

The easy victory they won from the Donovanites in their initial tussle gave them plenty of confidence. "Doc" Hildebrand, the former Princeton baseball and football star, was a spectator of the game. He came here to see his brother Homer, the Pittsburgh twirler. "Doc" will leave for Ottawa, Canada, to-night, where he is to play independent ball for a few months.

Two Jersey Girls Ran Away to Coney.

Two sixteen-year-old Jersey girls who were attracted by the wonders of Coney Island went today to the Coney Island Casino, where they were seen by a detective and caused their arrest. They were Ethel Beale, of No. 39 Lackawanna avenue, Newark, and her sister, who disappeared from home last Tuesday, and were found last night by Mrs. Beale.

Mrs. Beale went to Coney Island the day after the girls ran away. She searched the dance halls and side shows. It was at Surf avenue at midnight that she found them. They ran, but Pastorius Lynch was nearby, and after a chase of half a dozen blocks they were caught.

Tennis Cups.

LONDON, June 15.—The contest between the United States and Great Britain for the Dwight F. Davis International Tennis Challenge Cup opened this afternoon on the All-England tennis ground, but during which the weather was so inclement that the match was postponed.

Through the incapacitation of Beals C. Wright the Americans have admittedly all uphill games to play, especially in the doubles to-morrow.

Before Wright's accident the British players discussed the likelihood of their defeat, but now, in the absence of the American crack, the British contestants feel infinitely safer.

In the singles for the Dwight F. Davis International Tennis Cup S. H. Smith, British, beat Raymond D. Little, American, by 3-0. The scores were 6-4, 6-4 and 6-1.

The American felt a somewhat easy prey to Smith, not scoring a single set. The American appeared to be nervous. Once or twice he rallied in good shape, but this did not last. His service was rather erratic. Smith had the best of matters throughout and won by 3-0.

H. L. Doherty, in the Davis Cup singles to-day, beat Holcombe Ward by 3-0. The scores were 6-2, 5-6, 6-3.

Doherty played such a smashing game that the American did not win a set. Ward occasionally showed brilliantly, but he was not good enough to win.

Ward's service was rather erratic. Doherty played such a smashing game that the American did not win a set. Ward occasionally showed brilliantly, but he was not good enough to win.

CIVIL-SERVICE BOARD MAY HAVE TO GO TO JAIL

Appellate Division Upholds Justice Marean's Order of Contempt.

The three members of the Civil Service Commission of the city of New York—William F. Baker, Alfred J. Taylor and R. Ross Appleton—are due to execute one of the hardest backlogs in history to-morrow, or go to jail. The Appellate Division of the Kings County Supreme Court found them guilty of contempt of court to-day in refusing to obey Justice Marean's order to give a new rating to Patrolman William C. Klepper, who says that he was treated unfairly in his examination for the position of roundman. The Commissioners are ready to back down.

Klepper found that the Civil Service Commissioners had charged against his record fines inflicted upon him when he was a probationary policeman. He applied for a re-rating and, failing to get it, retained Robert H. Wilson as counsel to take the matter into court.

Supreme Court Justice Marean issued an order commanding the Civil Service Commission to give Klepper his proper rating, which would advance him upon the eligible list instead of complying with the order of the Civil Service Commission to take a new examination and gave him a lower rating than he had before. When this was brought to the attention of Justice Marean he sent a command to the members of the commission to appear before him.

Obedy or Go to Jail.

They persisted in their refusal to change Klepper's rating. Whereupon Justice Marean declared them in contempt. On behalf of the Commissioners, Corporation Counsel Wilson went before the Appellate Division and made application for a writ of mandamus to compel Justice Marean to set aside his contempt decree. This was on Wednesday, and the application acted as a stay.

Justice Hirschberg rendered the opinion for the Appellate Division on the case to-day, upholding Justice Marean and dissolving the stay.

"The Civil Service Commission," said Justice Hirschberg, "is not above the law. This court will not interfere with a decree of the Appellate Division in a question of contempt. There is absolutely no excuse for non-compliance with the order of the court, and there is good ground for punishment for contempt. The proper course for the Civil Service Commission to take is to obey the court's order and take an appeal from it through the proper channels."

At Mercy of Justice.

The order committing the three recalcitrant Commissioners to jail lacked only Justice Marean's signature, but the case was not hurried to the Appellate Division. They realized that it was to go to jail or obey, decided to obey. They said they had not intended to disobey, but were merely trying to establish their legal status. Whether they will be allowed to modify the order of the court or will be dealt with severely, rests entirely with Justice Marean.

RETAIN TENNIS TITLE.

H. H. Hackett and J. A. Allen yesterday successfully defended their title of Manhattan tennis double champions. This was the challenge match of the tournament on the courts of the New York Lawn Tennis Club. They defeated the challenge team of J. H. Hackett and J. A. Allen by 3-0. The scores were 6-4, 6-4 and 6-1.
